

Future Psychologists: Impacting the Sustainable Development Goals and Global Issues

Thursday, 14 May 2015

11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Dag Hammarskjold Auditorium
UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS, NEW YORK

RSVP

This Briefing will explore youth perspectives on psychology – what their concerns are in today's world, what global problems their research is tackling and how it is relevant to the implementation of the sustainable development goals (SDGs).

DPI  NGO

Working Together: Making a Difference.
Department of Public Information Non-Governmental Organizations

Organized in partnership with the American Psychological Association

Saji Thomas, Child Protection Specialist, Mental Health and Psychosocial Support and Community Based Child Protection in Emergencies, UNICEF

Jin Hashimoto, Master's Candidate in Psychological Counseling

Roxane Caires, Master's Candidate in Human Development and Social Intervention

Dalal Alhomaizi, Master's Candidate in Global Mental Health and Trauma

Leah Kaylor, Master's Candidate in Forensic Mental Health Counseling

Eri Imahori, Master's Candidate in Clinical Psychology

